INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY POLICY

Unauthorized sharing of Colloquium content via Internet access through the sharing of user names and passwords or via Flash Drive through the sharing of said media is restricted by law and may subject the copyright infringer to substantial civil damages. The Colloquium aggressively pursues copyright infringers.

If a registrant needs the ability to share Colloquium content within his or her organization, multiple Colloquium registrations are available at discounted rates.

The Colloquium will pay a reward for information regarding unauthorized sharing of Colloquium content. The reward will be 25% of any recovery resulting from a copyright infringement (less legal fees and other expenses related to the recovery) up to a maximum reward payment of $25,000. The payment will be made to the individual or individuals who in the opinion of our legal counsel first provided the factual information, which was necessary for the recovery.

If you have knowledge regarding the unauthorized Colloquium content sharing, contact the Colloquium registration office

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The Colloquium program is subject to change. An executed registration form constitutes binding agreement between the parties.
